Sunday morning at the First M. E. church Rev. D. F. Howe preached to a very rich very large congregation. His subject related to the bitter trials which are met produces bitter waters Mara encountered by the Israelites just after the passage of the Red Sea told in the book of Exodus. He ew strong lessons from this bit of history and made very clear the fact that bitter waters of trial and dissapoint. waters of Mara came after the songs and in that shoutings of Miriam and the Israelites over their deliverance from Pharaoh.

A Bad Expression.

Very many people become confused on matters belonging to the questions involved in the tariff, through ambiguous or wrong expressions in newspapers and by public speakers and other teachers. Here is a glaring example taken from a strong protectionist paper:

Labor is a good deal like money. The more plentiful it is the less is the purthasing power of it.

This statement at first blush seems to be correct, but it falls far short of expressing the idea intended at this time, than can get it. In 1892 things were many departments than there were skilled men to do it. Then wages were high. Now wages are low, and still going lower. But this change is not the result of an increase of men who want to sell their labor, Practically there are no more men to sell their labor than in 1898: There has been no inflation of labor. The trouble is not of that character. On the contrary the trouble is clearly due to the destruction of the demand for labor. It was demonstrated by the operations of the McKinley tariff act that such a demand for lat be created in this country as to give every man and woman who desired to labor, an opportunity to sell their labor at a good price.

But in an evil hour the demagogue came along, and many people believe that there was no such thing as creating a demand for labor; and that there GRAND OPERA HOUSE. would be just as many factories running and as many built, without protection as with it; that the price of labor was kept up by the labor unions, and that all the laboringman needed to acquire the acme of prosperity, was to have protection wiped out; that had no other use for him except to tax the things he bought, and thus cause him to pay more for them than he would have to pay if there was no protection. Upon this false assumption the free trade Demoleums, Rags, Mats, Etc., cheaper than ever the very moment they came into power, before in the history of the carpet business. the demand for labor began to decline and as the demand declined idle men

The idls men are chargeable to the destruction of the demand for labor. So WALL PAPER, Window Shades, Room Mouldings, Lace, Chemand for labor would not restore the Daily Republican labor. That is precisely what protection does.

The tariff on tin plate created a condition where $3,000,000 of capital went in and built 40 tin plate mills in less than two years, and employed from 6,000 to 8,000 men, affording a living to probably 30,000 human beings. Free rade would not accomplish this in a thousand years, and the threat to destroy the conditions under which capital was invested in manufactures, and under which they were conducted, caused them to stop business, and thus the demand for labor was destroyed.

Under these conditions it is mislead ing to say that, "Labor is a good deal like money. The more plentiful it is the less is the purchasing power of it." The truth is that the less the demand for labor the less is labor's purchasing power. The Democrats in congress are trying to destroy permanently the de-mand for labor by passing the Wilson

Sam Kohr, the person who is alleged to have aided John Creekmur in the to have added John Creekmur in the assault on the Hart girl, was put on the stand, by the defense, late Monday evening. The prosecution objected to the taking of his testimony on the ground that, at the beginning of this examination, at the request of the defense the court had excluded all witnesses from the court room and that Kohr had been present and heard all the witnesses he present and heard all the witnesses, he not having benn regularly subpensed, but called by the defense when it wanted to put him on the stand. The prosecution held that the same principle, on which the witnesses had been excluded, should be applied to Kohr. After hearing arguments by the attraction to the same principle, or ing arguments by the attorneys the court dee ded that the witness might be ex-

WORKING FOR UNION.

The Democracy Trying to Get Together on the Tariff Bill.

SEVERAL CONFERENCES YESTERDAY

And an Air of Hopefulness Indicating Raith in the Success of the Effort-Secretary Carlisle Assisting in the Work.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—Numerous conferences held in the committee rooms vesterday indicate that an effort on the part of democrats to get together is being made. The air of hopefulness that surrounds the members of the majority also gives color to the report that they expect to have final action on the tariff bill within the next few weeks. One of the most conspicuous of these conferences was held in Mr Cockrell's room yesterday afternoon, and was attended by Messrs. Cockrell, Vest, Harris and Jones (Ark.), who were closeted together for more than an hour. This meeting was for the purpose, as said by those who par-ticipated in it, of arranging some plan of action whereby business could be facilitated and the debate on the pending bill pushed along as expeditiously as possible. It was decided that after Wednesday next, when the unanimous consent under which the senate is now working shall have expired, another agreement be asked for which would include a longer session than that which has been held during he past three weeks. It was thought best, however, to permit matters to go as they are for a few days, after which Mr. Harris is to ask that the senate meet at 11 o'clock and remain in session until 6. Members of the majority will also be notified that they must be present at all times for the purpose of making a quorum and meeting any effort on the part of the minority to It is said that at this conference the subject of further concessions was also discussed; and some color is given to this report by the fact that subsequently Senator Smith was sent for and remained in close consultation with Senators Vest and Jones, of the finance committee. Mr. Gorman also formed a part of this consultation party for quite a long time later in the Whether or not any positive conclusion was reached, the democrats were in a much better frame of mind later in the afternoon, and those who talked about the situation were prone to predict that the bill would become a law within a very reasonable time. According to one of the many stories floating about the capitol, Mr. Gorman was engaged in formulating a compromise measure upon which all factions of the party were expected to unite. Mr. Gorman denied that there was any truth in the statement, but added that it grew out of the fact, as he imagined, that the bill would ultimately be arranged as the majority wanted it, and that the senators were preparing for the more general discussion that would follow when the bill came up for discussion by paragraphs next Wednesday.

The income tax has figured very largely in the gossip of the day and it is said that the offer has been made to those senators who oppose this tax to amend it so that it will retain the form but not the substance of the provision as it now appears. Mr. Smith is not quoted by anyone as saying that he would agree to support the bill with this tax modified, but it is said that he has been very persistent in his demands for increased duties and that he has been largely successful in those demands. He denies that the modification of the income tax has been sug-

Mr. Hill, who, with Mr. Smith, has made the open fight against the income tax, is not in the city, and could not, therefore, be a party to any alleged agreement or compromise

That there is an energetic effort foot to reconcile the differences of the democrats cannot be denied, and one are based on the alleged prejudice of very important evidence of that desire is the conference between Secretary Carlisle and Mr. Jones (Ark.) chairman of the subcommittee on finance, which took place yesterday afternoon after the senate adjourned to consider what should be done after Wednesday next. No conclusion was reached.

The Nichols Law of Ohio Declared to be Unconstitutional.

Washington, April 24.—Information reached the department of justice late yesterday afternoon that Judge Taft rendered a decision in the circuit court of the United States at Cincinnati yesterday holding that the Nichols law for the taxation of telegraph and express companies is in violation of the constitution of Ohio and enjoining the state board of appraisers from pro-

This is the case in which Solicitor-General Maxwell claimed that the state authorities were attempting to anticipate the judgment of the federal court by obtaining the opinion of the supreme court of the state in a "moot" case. The fact that Judge Taft has rendered his decision without waiting to hear from the state court would seem to support the solicitor general's contention, and the further fact that placed in the cage while the case was the decision of the federal court is in favor of his clients, makes it a decided victory for him all round.

Secretary Carlisle to the Rescue.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—It is learned that Secretary Carlisle has now taken the amended tariff bill in hand, and is endeavoring, in conjunction with Senator Jones, of Arkansas, chairman of the subcommittee, to straighten out the entangliments with which the senate has subcounded the hill, so as to secure it practically the united support of democratic senators.

Secretary Carlisle and Senator Jones began the consideration of the bill at the treasury department yesterday af-ternoon, taking up the measure by paragraphs. From Secretary Carlisle's intimate knowledge of tariff matters, fortified by his practical acquaintance with the working of the existing law, gained since acceptance of the treasury portfolio, much is expected in the way of harmonizing conflicting interests and perfecting the bill. Senator Gorman was potential in inducing Secre-tary Carlisle to take the matter up.

Mr. Washburn (dem., Tenn.) spoke in opposition to the bill.

Mr. Doubt then went on with thetsecond installment of his speech begun Saturday, a very short installment, however, as the hour of 5 p. m arrived before he had spoken fifteen mincites. Most of that time was given to comments on a newspaper interriew with Senator Brice regarding the president's action and views on the tariff question just as the hands of the clock dial pointed to 5, Mr. Quay called the attention of the presiding officer to that fact and Mr. Gray remarked that there was nothing in the agree-marked that there was nothing in the agree-mark that prevented any senator from contin-uing his speech; but shall t was apparent and had been for weeks, that the other side did not intend that the daily debate should continue beyond the point agreed upon, and that it meant that time should be wasted. THE DUESTROW CASE

Sent, on Change of Venue, Before Judge

Hirzel, of St. Louis County. Sr. Louis, April 24.—The case of Dr. Arthur Duestrow, charged with murder in the first degree for killing his wife and child, came up in the criminal court yesterday, and some sharp practice was indulged in on both sides. Gov. Johnson, Duestrow's lawyer, filed affidavits disqualifying Judge Edmunds from passing on the motion for a change of venue without filing the application for the change of venue itself. The affidavit sets forth that the defendant believes that Judge Henry L Edmunds of the criminal court will not give him a fair and impartial trial and will not fairly and a change of venue. These allegations the citizens of St. Louis, and Duestrow in his motion prays for a special judge was accompanied by the affidavits of Mark E. Lennon, a notary public A number of leading republicans, including Senators Cullom, Dolph, Allison, Shoup, Aldrich and Dubois, met lin Mutual Insurance Co. The law requires that such an application as Ducstrow's be accompanied by the affidavits of two reputable citizens, and Lennon and Heintz made oath that the statements contained in Duestrow's petition were true. Judge Ed-munds appointed Judge Hirzel, of St. Louis county, as special judge to try the case. This will give Judge Hirzel final jurisdiction of the case, and he cannot be disqualified. He can try the case on his own or some other circuit, but wherever it is taken he will preside as judge.

The case was reset for May 7. Gov. Johnson appeared much dissatisfied with the turn the case took, though he stated that Judge Hirzel was a most fair and impartial judge. He said that when the case came up on May 7 he would apply for a change of venue because, he held that St Louis county was the same as St. Louis as far as prejudice to his client was concerned Duestrow was brought up from jail with the rest of the prisoners and was being passed on.

The Pope and the Spanish Bishops, ROME, April 24.—The pope received the Spanish bishops yesterday morning. He spoke to them at some length on free masonary, whose growth in France, Italy and Spain he greatly deplored. The bishop of Victoria mentioned the offer of the Victoria municipal authorities to give the pope a refuge in case he should feel obliged to leave Rome. The pope replied that he should remain in Rome to guard the tomb of the sportles.

AND TROUBLE EXPECTED TO FOLLOW

Barbarous Treatment of a New York Lady Whose Husband Was Assassinated and She Wounded and Captured by the Assassin.

BLUEFIELDS, N. M. R., NICARAGUA April 18.—Since the departure of the San Francisco for Port Limon to coal senate and placed on file.

A joint resolution accepting a bronze tablet to commemorate the laying of the corner stone of the capitol building on September 18, 1793, was introduced by Mr. Voorhees and passed. [The tablet, he explained, was to mark the precise spot where Washington stood when he laid the corner stone.]

Mr Aldrich presented the memorial of certain women against the passage of the Wilson tariff bill. He explained that sixteen of those women (engaged in textile manufacture) had visited the capitol for the purpose of presenting a respectful protest against the bill. The majority of the finance committee here de-

As the Clinton is preparing to sail, a schooner-load of Nicaraguan troops has just landed, having come up from Greytown. It is reported that three other boat-loads of troops are coming. Locayo was very much agitated when he learned that the troops were about to land, as he feared that trouble would ensue with the Americans and natives, especially as the American man-of-war was down at Port Limon and would not return for several days.

A Mrs. Renton, of New York, arrived here with her little nicce, 7 years old, and reports being subjected to barbarous treatment. Her left wrist is shattered by a bullet. It seems that her husband had a claim near Brewers' lagoon in Honduras, where they lived. A man named Johnson, also an American, lived with them. One night a half-breed called Johnson to the door and shot him in the knee with a Win-

Later Renton was called out and shot in the stomach by the same men. As Mrs. Renton went to her husband's rescue she was shot in the wrist and then seized by the fiend who had been reinforced by several of his ilk, and with her niece she was made to ride on muleback for three days and subjected to many indignities. They finally brought her to Port Garcias, where, hearing that Nicaraguan troops were in the vicin ity, they abandoned her.

They will have authority to employ as many physicians as the work requires for the purpose of quarantining houses, removing patients, vaccinating indiscriminately and sup plying persons quarantined with food and medicine. The subordinate physicians will report to headquarters established in various parts of the city, where the work for the day will be laid out and all supplies kept. A thorough canvass of every house in the city will be made, the police being re-lieved of that duty. The west side, where the disease is almost epidemic will have four districts, the south side two and the north side one.

A new annex to the pesthouse, be sides the one just completed, will be built at once to accommodate 100 patients. Tents will be used in case o emergency, and a dozen ambulance be no longer any delay in the burial of victims and the removal of patients to the pesthouse on account of inadequate facilities. # Retiring from Business!

≺ORTY YEARS of active business life are numbered in my history. I have come to the time when I propose to retire. I do this because I feel that advancing years make business cares heavier for me. because it is the wish of my family, because it is time now that I try to enjoy the fruits of these years. I intend to quit, and not only that, I intend to quit just as quick as I can. I have lived in this city so long and am so well known to the people here and in the surrounding country that I think no one will mistake my meaning. I understand and appreciate the fact that I have to make prices to move this stock out quick. I do not intend to be long about it. I will, of necessity, receive many new goods yet, it being necessary to make contracts with factories six months ahead, but I do intend to clean out the whole business as fast as the people will take the stock. In this connection I will also say that my stock has always been known as very full and complete and is not only necessarily large, but comprises everything that you can want in footwear. Any goods which I sell at or below cost must be strictly for cash.
